

Frank Lace Mosley

January 23, 1946 - July 10, 2011

Frank Lace Mosley Sr., 65, a native of Tulsa, Oklahoma, died Sunday, July 10, 2011 at his home in Mansfield, Texas. Frank was raised in Tulsa, where he attended schools. He would join the US Marine Corp for nine years, including 3 tours in Viet Nam. His service included working on various air craft carriers and serving as a drill instructor. After his military service, he would return to Tulsa and marry the late Patricia Gayle Cook. Together, they would spend the next 30 years of life in both Tulsa and San Angelo, where he would work as a city employee in the maintenance divisions. Patricia would die unexpectedly on January 2, 2000 in San Angelo. Shortly thereafter, he would meet Alice Ford and move to Irving, Texas. Their loving friendship would flourish for the next 11 years. Alice would remain a faithful friend and loving companion. When his health allowed, Frank was an avid reader, fisherman and sports fan. He especially loved his Oklahoma Sooners, The Dallas Cowboys and the Little League World Series. He is survived by his loving companion and friend; Alice Ford; son, Frank Mosley Jr.; daughter, Angela Hobbs and her husband Kyle Smith; grandchildren, Logan Smith, Emily Ford, Elizabeth Ford, Natalie Ford and Valerie Castillo. Also by his step-sons; David Ford and his wife Ann, Keith Ford and his wife Amy and Jimmy Ford. Graveside service with military honors: 9:15 a.m. Tuesday, July 19, 2011 at DFW National Cemetery.
