

Frederick Thomas Schmidt

August 4, 1935 - June 10, 2006

Frederick Thomas Schmidt, 70, a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, died Saturday, June 10, 2006 in a local care center after a lengthy illness. Mr. Schmidt was the son of Frederick and Mae Buchman Schmidt, born August 4, 1935. After graduation from school, he enlisted with the Ohio National Guard with whom he served faithfully. His passion for computers since their inception led him to become a founder, owner and entrepreneur of several computer programming companies, most recently in Cincinnati and Aurora, Indiana. Memorial Service: 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 21, 2006 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main St., Grand Prairie, Texas. A Memorial Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated in his native home of Cincinnati at a later date. Survivors: sons; Tom Schmidt, Mark Schmidt and his wife Lebra, Steve Schmidt and his wife Kelly, daughter; Terri Gamboa and her husband Nick, 7 grandchildren, the mother of his children and friend, Charlene Jarman, numerous nieces and nephews, and special friend; Barbara Breen.