

Georgia Carroll

May 1, 1950 - June 9, 2026

Georgia Anne Carroll was born May 1, 1950, in Saratoga Springs, New York, to James and Virginia Carroll. She was raised in Grand Prairie, Texas, where she developed a lifelong love of learning, travel, and discovery.

Georgia graduated from Grand Prairie High School in 1968 and went on to earn a Master's Degree in Education from the University of North Texas. She spent 39 years serving students in the Grand Prairie Independent School District as a reading specialist. She worked closely with children facing reading challenges and helped them develop necessary skills, confidence, and a love of learning that would serve them throughout their lives. Her patience, dedication, and belief in every child's potential left a lasting impact on countless students.

Outside the classroom, Georgia was an adventurous traveler. Her journeys took her across the United States, Europe, and Asia. She delighted in sharing those adventures with family and friends, creating cherished memories and inspiring a spirit of curiosity in those fortunate enough to travel alongside her.

After retiring, she devoted herself to genealogy and family history, spending countless hours researching her family's roots and preserving stories that might otherwise have been lost. Georgia's interest in her ancestry often led to travels in search of historical records and family connections.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James and Virginia Carroll; her brother, David Carroll; and her sister, Geanine Carroll.

She is survived by her sister, Patricia Carroll; her brother, Jim Carroll and wife Pam; her nieces, Cortney Carroll Hogue and husband Jay and Jamie Carroll Ley and husband Geoff; and her great-nephew and great-niece, Everett and Corinne Ley.

Georgia's legacy lives on through the students she helped learn to read, the family history she preserved, and the lives she enriched through her kindness, wisdom, and dedication.

A private family service will be held at Holy Redeemer Cemetery.

image0.jpeg

Cemetery Details

Holy Redeemer

1500 Westermoreland Road
DeSoto, TX 75115