

Gerry Malcom Copeland

March 29, 1938 - May 4, 2014

Gerry Malcom "Gerald" Copeland, 76, a native of Wichita Falls, Texas, entered into life eternal on Sunday, May 4, 2014 in Arlington, Texas.

Memorial service: 12 Noon on Wednesday, May 7, 2014 at Open Door Baptist Church, 2545 W. Warrior Drive, Grand Prairie, Rev. James Hogue officiating.

Gerry was the son of the late George Meyers Copeland and the late Retha Bea Tedford Copeland, born on March 29, 1938. When he was a young man, he would work on oil rigs in various locations in west Texas.

He would later learn the skill of home-building, and would become a successful builder. He would later work for Gifford Hill, working in their maintenance department.

When he was younger and his health allowed, one of his greatest joys was fishing.

He is survived by his children; Bertha Eve Anderson, Gerald Meyers, Teresa Gail Mackey and her husband Cam; 6 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 57 years, Wanda Lee Copeland in June of 2013.

Tribute Wall

GM

“ My Daddy will be in my heart and truly missed. He missed my Momma terribly and often spoke of how he wanted to be with her, he got his wish May 4th and I believe they are dancing in heaven together. I'm very lost without them but I know we will all be together again someday. I love you Daddy, your Baby Girl

Gail Mackey - May 11, 2014 at 06:34 AM