“ I just found out today that my father passed away. I am his oldest child. I never knew my father as he left when I was a baby. My mother did not tell me much about him and I did not get to meet his brothers and sisters until I was already an adult. I take great comfort in the fact that I was able to ask him for forgiveness for the years that I hated him for leaving. It was something that gave me great peace and changed my life. He even came over to my house in Austin several times and fixed my patio roof once. My condolences to his children, my step-sisters and step brothers, and his brothers and sisters, whom I will keep in my prayers. I am glad that he is in a better place and is not suffering anymore.
