December 12, 1943 - August 16, 2013

Guadalupe Perez De La Cerda, 69, a native of Acuna Coahuila Mexico, died on Friday, August 16, 2013.

Lupe was born on December 12, 1943, the son of the late Pedro De La Cerda and the late Petra Perez. He was the 5th of 6 children, migrating to the United States, living in Oklahoma and Indiana before settling in Grand Prairie where he and his wife, Belen, would raise their 4 children.

Lupe would begin a career with American Steel, working as a foreman for more than 40 years. Illness would eventually force his retirement.

He was an avid collector of sports memorabilia, including sports cards. Lupe loved to garden and care for his yard. He had a knack for making something creative out of other people's junk. He was a craftsman, creating wind chimes, bird houses and chairs.

His family will always recall the special day of the week to him, Sunday. He would always have time reserved on Sunday to take the grandchildren to the park to feed the ducks. It was his special time!

His survivors include his loving wife of 49 years, Belen De La Cerda; children, Pedro De La Cerda, Guadalupe De La Cerda Jr. and his wife Lisa, Sam De La

Cerda, Lisa De La Cerda Munoz and her husband Ray; 10 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren and a brother, Maurilio De La Cerda.

Graveside service will be 11 a.m. Tuesday, August 20, 2013 at Grand Prairie Memorial Gardens.

“ Today Was One Of The Hardest Days Of My Life, I Wasn't Ready To say Goodbye To You For Forever. I Know You're In A Better Place Where You Are No Longer Suffering Or In Pain, But It's So Unfair That You Couldn't Have That Here With Us. I'll Never Be Able To Thank You & Grandma Or Repay Y'all For Everything That Y'all Did For Us. I'm Forever Internally Grateful To Y'all For Being The phenomenal Grandparents You are To Us. When The Day Does Come For Stevie & I To Become Grandparents I Can Only Hope That We Are Half The Grandparents Y'all Are To Us! I Love You Papi & I Miss You More Than You'll Ever Know! Te Quiero Papi Y Te Extraño Mucho.
