“ You all do not know me, but many, many years ago I worked at Warner Brown Hospital in El Dorado, Arkansas. I knew Gwen as the daughter of Jean and Al. I worked with Jean in the admitting office at the hospital. Gwen was a young lady, teenager. Beautiful girl. The Hale children were all sweet, well mannered Christian kids. I loved them all. They were special in my life. Please except my sympathies on your loss of this beautiful woman

I am just devastated at the loss of Gwen. She was a precious soul. We would often talk about cooking and baking because I had a sweet tooth. She baked our pies for Thanksgiving. I would always call her or text her telling her I wanted something sweet. The deal is I'm diabetic and couldn't have it. So Gwen told me she would bake me some banana bread with Splenda when she got back from her trip. She was so sweet! Oh how I'm gonna miss her. I know she'll be missed by many.
