Heaven is a little brighter with the arrival of Gwyn “Nanny” Sellers on, July 25, 2024.

Nanny was born on June 5, 1936, in Pampa, Texas. She was the fourth of six children born to R.J. and Irene Polson. During her childhood, her father was employed by Cabot Corporation, which kept the family on the move throughout Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma. In high school, Nanny excelled in her studies and sports having lettered in basketball, softball, and volleyball. In 1956, she was living in Amarillo, Texas, where she met Edgar Sellers through mutual friends. They were married on October 4, 1956, and would spend the next 63 years together. Nanny was the consummate wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She gave all she had to those she loved. Everyone she met felt better about themselves while in her presence.

Nanny was predeceased by her beloved son, Steve, on May 2, 1999, and by her loving husband, Edgar, on September 1, 2019.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Brenda and David Wetzel; her son and daughter-in-law, Danny and Rene Sellers; four grandchildren, Jared Wetzel, Jacob Wetzel, Kayla Sellers Grote, and Kevin Sellers; and was blessed with 8 great-grandchildren, Joshua Wetzel, Caleb Wetzel, Abbie Wetzel, Luke Wetzel, Ethan Wetzel, Isaac Wetzel, Emma Wetzel, and Mason
