

Harry Joe Spall

January 14, 1962 - August 9, 2017

Harry Joseph Spall, 55, a native of Valentine, Nebraska and resident of Grand Prairie, died on Wednesday, August 9, 2017 at a hospital in Arlington, Texas.

Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, August 14, 2017 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where funeral services will occur at 7. Military Honors and Committal Service: 9:15 a.m. Tuesday at DFW National Cemetery.

Harry was born on January 14, 1962, the son of the late Harry Joe Spall and the late Naomi Hutchison. He would attend and graduate from school in Valentine before joining the US Navy.

Always proud of his service to his country, he would serve as a chef on the US Kitty Hawk. When transferred stateside, he would be stationed at The Naval Air Base in Dallas. After his discharge, he would remain in Grand Prairie for the rest of his life.

Harry's training as a chef became a passion for the rest of his life. He would cook at Vought, Northropp Grumman and even for the Dallas Cowboys. Though a professional in trade, there was no one he enjoyed cooking for more than his family. Week-ends were always enjoyable with Harry always having food for everyone.

He is survived by his long-time companion, Melissa Grounds; sons, Angel Tony Vera, Angel Kendrick, John Spall, Gregory Joe Spall and his souse Jessica Trevino; 7 grandchildren and 10 siblings and the mother of his sons, Idalia Cabral.
