

Helen Josephine Mashburn

February 1, 1928 - May 9, 2017

Helen Woolworth Mashburn went home to her savior on May 9th. Helen was born in Ottawa, Illinois in February 1928. For those who knew her, she was full of life and spunk that did not waiver even during her last days.

Helen was raised in Wichita, Kansas where she met the love of her life, Troy Mashburn. The Mashburn family moved to Fort Worth in 1949 and settled in Haltom City where they raised their family. Helen learned to play the piano when she was 6 then continued to blossom into a talented pianist who made teaching piano her occupation for over 50 years.

In addition to teaching piano, she was also a chaperone and talent coach for the Ms. Texas Pageant for 30 plus years. Helen was a wonderful musician who taught many young women to find their musical talent. She was a mentor for so many women and men whom she helped find their musical calling.

She was preceded in death by her husband of sixty years, Troy.

She is survived by her daughter, Lois and her husband, Dee; her son Ernie and his wife, Rebekah; and grandchildren, Lisa and Jim; Denise and Todd; Lonny; Brian; Jennifer and Matt; Jason and Tara and 5 great grandchildren. Services will be at the Saint Luke's United Methodist Church in Haltom City on Friday, May 12th at 11:30 a.m. A reception at the church will follow the service. The burial will be at Oakwood Cemetery.
