

Homer Wade Ketner

August 5, 1953 - February 29, 2020

Homer Wade Ketner, age 66, passed away peacefully in his Alvarado Texas home on February 29th, 2020. Homer was a proud Veteran of the Vietnam War serving alongside his brothers in the 1st Aviation Battalion.

Homer is survived by his Father John Wesley Thomas Ketner, Eldest Son; Michael Wade Ketner and Daughter-in-Law, Tabatha Lee Ketner, Youngest Son; Shannon Wade Ketner and Daughter-in-Law Jana Achziger. His grandchildren; Samantha Marie Ketner, Rachael Christine Ketner, and Amy Nicole Ketner. His great-grandchildren; Wyatt and Peyton Ketner-Mendoza, Brother's Jimmy Wayne Ketner, Johnny Ketner, and Sister Shirley Callender.

He is preceded in death by his Mother Annie May Ketner.

Homer had made his peace with Christ and was ready when our Lord called him home. Although his family will grieve their loss, they know that they will be reunited with him in heaven one day, and Homer's legacy will live on in his children, grand-children, and great-grand-children.

Friends are invited to celebrate Homers life with the family on Thursday, March 5th, 2020 from 3:30pm – 5:00PM at the National Cemetery in Dallas located at 2000 Mountain Creek Pkwy, Dallas, TX 75211.
