“ Grandma you will always be loved and greatly missed by many. You have touched the lives of so many people. You were always so loving, caring and had lots of patience. Every time I saw you grandma you were always happy and ready to talk. You would always love for everyone to visit and keep you company. I know you have been taken from all of us who love you. But God must have bigger plans for you to take such an amazing woman, mother, grandma & great- grandma & friend who meant so much to all. I know good bye is not for ever so I'll just say I'll see you later. But for now you rest and with a higher purpose in the sky's to watch over all who love you. Grandma I'll miss you dearly and love you for ever and cherish all the memories I've had through the years. Untill we meet again " I'll just say I'll see you later.”

Love you forever grandma

“ Our dear Hortencia,

You will be missed so much by so many! You have been a part of our lives for 19 years! Every day you shared your joyful spirit, your boundless energy, an unwavering commitment to serving us and a tremendous love of children.

My memory of you will be the way your face would light up and you would show such glee when you saw the da Vinci children. You loved them and they knew it! They loved you in return...as do all of us whose lives you touched. You are one very special lady!

Our da Vinci School yearbook will be dedicated to your memory this year to honor you and what you mean to us!

God is happy to have "Tencha" back home in His radiant light!

My love and prayers to you, your family, and most especially, our dear Rudy!
