

Isidra C. Herrera

July 19, 1942 - September 15, 2025

Isidra Casas, affectionately known as “Nena”, was born on July 19, 1942, in McAllen, Texas, and passed away peacefully at home on September 15, 2025, surrounded by her loving family, at the age of 83.

On February 2, 1963, she married the love of her life, Luis Herrera. Together, they shared 62 wonderful years of marriage and built a beautiful family rooted in love and faith.

Isidra was known for her warm and generous spirit. She loved cooking and filling her home with delicious meals and cherished gatherings. She also enjoyed her trips to Winstar Casino, where she found joy and excitement. A devout and deeply religious woman, her faith guided her life and served as a source of strength for her and her family.

Those who knew her will remember her as strong-minded, independent, caring, and loving. She touched the lives of everyone blessed to know her.

Isidra is survived by her devoted husband, Luis Herrera; her children, Maria Segovia, JoseLuis Herrera, Rosa Treviño, and Sylvia Velarde; her grandchildren, Alicia Vafadari, Rosa Lee Treviño, Raquel Herrera, Armando Treviño Jr., Samantha Velarde, Carlos Velarde, and Issaih Treviño; and her great-grandchildren, Clarence Treviño, Mia Vafadari, and Amina Martin. She is also survived by her siblings, Macedonio Casas and Rosa Shields.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Juan Gonzalez Casas and Rosa Garza; her brothers, Guadalupe Casas and Juan Casas Jr.; and many beloved relatives who have gone before her. As her husband tenderly shares, "My beloved wife has gone to be with extended family in McAllen, Texas, in the Valley, and in Indiana."

Isidra will be deeply missed and forever remembered by her family and friends.

Until we meet again, may she rest in God's eternal peace.

“ Just want to extend a big hug and thank you to everyone who was able to attend. And thank you everyone for keeping my family in your thoughts and prayers. We appreciate all the beautiful flowers arrangements, the memorial trees and your presence. I know my mother was so happy that all her, friends and loved ones gathered to celebrated her life story. She was a strong-willed woman, and she was tuff one you, but with that being said her heart was even bigger. She always had her door open for anyone in need, and food and prayers could fixed anything. Thank you, love Nena's daughter Sylvia 💕

“ My little grandma I'll always remember our walks through the woods and to sixflags mall, our sleepovers and movie nights. The spaghetti dinners especially our birthday dinners where you'd make our favorite foods. I'll remember your advice that you gave us one being kisses aren't free. I will forever cherish every moment I spent with you the happy and sad. You are forever etched into my heart and my memories. I hope you know you had a huge part in shaping who I am today someone whos loving, strong, caring, protective all those traits I've learned from being in your presence. I'm so proud to call you MY grandma. Goodbye for now my little grandma I will be seeing you.
