“ I met Jaime over 40 years ago. My husband and Jaime were Navy recruiters in Weslaco, Tx. in 1975 and there is where I met him and my future husband when I went in to maybe join the Navy. After our wedding we lost touch with Jaime. Today I found out that he had passed away two years ago. My husband and I are very sad. I went looking for information of his whereabouts at his old neighborhood in Weslaco and was told by a neighbor that Jaime had passed. I wish we had kept in touch. My most heart felt condolences to his wife Peggy, his children and grandchildren.

“ This is a difficult time for the family and I would like to offer my sympathy, and I hope that this promise will comfort them. Revelation 21:4 shows how God feels. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (jw.org) Please remember this promise when you think of your loved one.
