“ Dan Dean was the smartest and kindest man I have ever known. I was the benefactor of his kindness when he designed and built an elevator for my house after I had major leg surgery. His dry sense of humor was unmatched and would leave you laughing hours later. You lived a good and Christian life Dan Dean. R.i.P.

“ Dan Dean was the husband of the best friend I have in the world. He was the epitome of everything a husband and father should be. And as a friend, there was none better. He was always there when we needed him and was always there when it was time for celebration. He was the inspiration that led my son to his chosen career. He was a
Second dad to my daughter when circumstances kept us away from home. And above all, Dan was a Christian man who loved the Lord, and we know he is with Him now.

“ The Dean household was an important part of my life growing up in LJ. Dan always made us laugh. Funny masks, silly jokes and stories, always fun to be around. Just one of the legacies that he passed onto his kids and grands. As a young girl he was like a second dad to me. He welcomed me into their fold when times were hard and I needed the stability of family. He loved greatly and was greatly loved by many. We grieve with the Dean family in the loss of a great husband, father, pepaw, friend, mentor and a faithful teacher and deacon in the church. But we join in celebrating his life and the countless legacies he leaves behind. We pray for comfort and strength for the Dean family, and we rejoice in knowing that Dan is at peace with Jesus.
