

James Allen Hill

December 1, 1939 - March 15, 2019

James Allen Hill, 79, a native of Dallas and long-time resident of Mesquite, passed away on March 15, 2019 at a Dallas hospital.

Private family graveside service: 2 p.m. Wednesday, March 20, 2019 at Grove Hill Memorial Park in Dallas.

James Hill was born on December 1, 1939, the son of the late Benjamin Garfield Hill and the late Winnie Marie Knight Hill. He would begin a career in the steel industry, rising to the position of supervisor with John F. Beasley Construction. He worked on many landmark buildings in Dallas, including the Bank of America Plaza Building, (the seventy-floor green building) Reunion Tower, Thanksgiving Square and World Trade Center Dallas.

His family knew where to find him on Sunday afternoon. He would be watching the Dallas Cowboys or NASCAR on television from his couch. It was better to wait until another time for conversation.

He was fiercely loyal to his family. Even though health issues had caused physical limitations, he could still let his feelings be known. He will be deeply missed.

He is survived by his friend and long-time companion, Doris Jean Hill;

children, Mark Hill and his spouse Stacey, Gary Hill, Jeffrey Hill; grandchildren, Mark Hill Jr. and spouse Melissa, Benjamin Hill, Stephanie Hill; great-grandchildren, Trevor, Aubrey, Ryker, Daja, Kayden, Carson, Kayden and Hailey. Also by one brother.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by siblings, Charles Hill, Janie Hill Bellamy an granddaughter, Sharee Hill.

The family request donations in lieu of flowers to Men and Ladies of Honor (w
