

James Duane Wright

October 7, 1944 - March 13, 2018

James Duane Wright, 73, a native of Dew, Texas and long-time resident of Grand Prairie, passed away on Tuesday, March 13, 2018 at a local hospital.

A family committal will be conducted at Dew Cemetery.

James was born on October 7, 1944, the 2nd child of 3 sons born to the late Jesse Edgar Wright and the late Mary Ollie Ayers Wright.

He was a graduate of Grand Prairie High School in 1963. James worked for Texas Instruments for more than thirty-one years following an automobile accident.

James was a gifted sculptor with the skill to create incredible works of art. He was an avid and compulsive reader, living life through many of the books he would read.

James loved flea markets. He would work booths at many locations, including Traders Village and the West Side Market in Dallas.

He is survived by his children, Eddie Wright, Latrish Wright; grandchildren, Alicia Wright Molina, Clayton Wright, Heather Figley, Jessica Wright; brothers, Eddie Wright and Wilton Wright.

Tribute Wall

 Marie
Cline

“ My sincere condolences! James was a very dear friend when I lived in Grand Prairie. Asking God's strength and comfort to his family.

Marie Cline - March 18, 2018 at 01:08 AM