

James Nathan Steward

August 7, 1947 - August 10, 2011

James Nathan Steward, 64, a native of Dallas, Texas (the Hutchins area) and retired truck driver, died at his home on Wednesday, August 10, 2011. Nathan was born on August 7, 1947, the 2nd child and only son born to the late J.T. Steward and the late Dorothea "Nell" Steward. He attended school in Hutchins, graduating with the class of 1965. He would initially work for Kroger Food Stores before eventually settling on a career as a truck driver. He would drive for Mistletoe, Overnight Express and eventually UPS. While still a young man, Nathan would marry the late Teresa Ruth Blanton. He would inherit more than a wife, gaining the love of her two young daughters also. Teresa would precede him in death, dieing in 2009. Nathan's most recent interest would include fast cars. He also enjoyed sailing, participating in several sailboat races. He leaves behind a son, Jeff Steward; step-daughters, Lisa Studer, Shelly Archer; 7 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; sister, Judy Todd; nieces and nephews. Funeral: 11 a.m. Saturday, August 13, 2011 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050. A private burial will follow at a later date.