“ Man how I miss you! I think of you every day. There's so many things I should of told you. I have a lot of regrets. I should of been a better friend/ aunt. Will meet again. Until then your in my heart and you'll always be my angel.

“ I saw a video of Jason tonight, taking his dog Casey for a bike ride. I thought "what a beautiful person". I read he was a dog trainer, and I actually wound up finding this page instead of more great stories of Jason and his dogs. I'm actually crying for someone I only know from a two minute video. I'm sure he is very missed by his family and those who knew him. Rest in Peace, Jason.

“ It's hard to put in words everything that's going through your head and your heart. First of all for me it was regret! I regret not being apart of his life more. I regret that I couldn't tell him how much I love him just one more time. He is my angel! His sister died when I was very young and I don't remember much but now I find myself in the position of having to tell my five yr old daughter why I can't stop crying. I told her that we have one more star in the sky. One more angel to watch over us. I miss you Jason.
