“ Jenny and I met 14 years ago. We met through our husbands being longtime friends. She did my hair twice and we spent 4th of July together several times. Made memories Ill never forget! She showed me not to take crap from ppl and the most important thing to being a wife is to be loyal to your family. I will always remember the night we sang red hot chili peppers at the top of our lungs. Love you girl and you will be missed.

“ We meet at work and she became my sister. We were there for each other no matter what. I'm sorry that life got busy and pulled us apart. My best memories in my life are the ones with her. Please don't let things or situations cause gaps, cause sometimes you can't get that time back. I'm sorry Jenny that I wasn't there when you needed it. I'll miss you till we meet again. Love you!

While we did not have the chance to know Jenny personally, we honor her life and the love she gave her family. We are thankful for the gift of Joe in our lives and for the cherished friendship Jerri shares with our daughter Alexa. Aubrey and Caleb bring joy to us all, and we keep Jennifer's memory close with heartfelt sympathy. - Doreen and Glenn
