“ My heart is breaking knowing your amazing family has lost the patriarch Jesse. He was always full of smiles and had so much pride in his beautiful family he held so closely. I'm sorry for your loss, but I know Jesse is sitting at the right hand of God smiling down on a good life's work. He is in no pain or suffering. He knows how loved he was.

You changed my life, you made me a hard worker with an incredible faith in God. You made me a giver and someone who wants to make an impact on others. I was always so proud to be your daughter.
