

Jesse Manuel Garcia

November 10, 1947 - September 28, 2011

Jesse Manuel Garcia, 63, retired teacher, educator and coach, died Wednesday, September 29, 2011 in Dallas, Texas. Jesse was born on November 10, 1947, the son of the late Rodolfo Garcia Sr. and the late Elvia Rios Garcia in Laredo, Texas. Jesse was a veteran of the US Army, serving 2 tours of duty in Viet Nam. After his military service, he would return to the United States and attend college at Sul Ross University in Alpine, where he played on the offensive line. While there, he would meet Jo Ann Dutchover, who would soon become his wife. After his college time, Jesse would begin a career in education, teaching and coaching, including time at Grand Prairie High School. During his life, he would be a positive role model and positive influence on many young men. He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Jo Ann Garcia; children, Joshua Manuel Garcia and his wife Jennifer, Jessica Marie Garcia; grandchildren, Destiny, Julia, Noah, Jordana, Jeff; siblings, Rene Garcia, Mario Garcia, Juanita Morehead and Letty Hill. Visitation: 3 to 9 p.m. Sunday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where recitation of The Holy Rosary will be at 7. Mass of Christian Burial: 11 a.m. Monday, October 3, 2011 at St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church. Burial: DFW National Cemetery.

Previous Events

Visitation

OCT 2 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570