

Jewel Mae Wright

November 29, 1931 - May 10, 2007

Wright, Jewel Mae, 75, a retired school teacher and receptionist with Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home died, Thursday, May 12, 2007. Mrs. Wright was a native of Princeton and a resident of Grand Prairie since 1961. She was a faithful member of Eighth Street Baptist Church for 37 years, serving in the bus, clown, Young Believers Choir and the Awana's Club ministries. Survivors include her sons; Redic Wright, Ray Wright Jr. and his wife, Rachel, daughters; Mitzi Wright Pederson and her husband, Kevin, Brenda Wright Speaks and her husband, Bill, 8 grandchildren and 1 great-grandson, brothers; Jasper Evans, Windle Evans, sisters; Martha Crosby, Virdie Crawford and Linda Lewis. She was preceded in death by her husband, Weldon "Ray" Wright, children; Connie Ray Wright and Bertha June Wright, brothers; Arnold Evans, Robert Evans, sisters; Peggy Thurman and Betty Massagee. Visitation: 5 to 9 p.m. Friday. Funeral: 1:00 p.m. Saturday, May 10, 2007 at Eighth Street Baptist Church, 709 Skyline Dr., Grand Prairie, Rev. Fred Heath and Rev. Dave Bentley officiating. Interment: Southland Memorial Park.

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 11 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570