

JoAnn Burnett Legalley

September 18, 1938 - January 29, 2026

JoAnn Burnett Legalley, a beloved mother, grandmother, and matriarch of a proud military family, passed away peacefully on January 29, 2026, at the age of 87. Born on September 18, 1938, in Roanoak, Texas, JoAnn was a strong and independent woman whose presence brightened the lives of all who knew her.

Throughout her life, JoAnn embodied resilience and intelligence, sharing her wisdom and warmth with her family and friends. She cherished her son, Floyd LeGalley, and daughter-in-law, Penny LeGalley, nurturing a bond that served as a pillar of strength in her life. As a grandmother, JoAnn found profound joy in her granddaughters, Michelle Swearingin, Sara Swearingin, Amy Mertz, and Audrey LeGalley, as well as in her great-grandchildren, Matthew Swearingin, Teresa Mason, Ronnie Mason, Kimberly Williams, Colten Clem, and Ruth Mertz.

Known for her love of the color blue and unwavering loyalty to the Dallas Cowboys, JoAnn's spirit was as vibrant as it was steady. She enjoyed many competitive and joyful hours playing shuffleboard and dominoes, relishing the cherished moments spent with family and friends.

To honor JoAnn's remarkable life and legacy, a visitation with her daughter (Robin Siewert and son-in-law, Mark Siewert) will take place at Guerrero Dean

Funeral Home, from 6 to 8 pm Monday, February 2, 2026. Funeral Services will follow at 9:30 AM Tuesday, allowing family and friends the opportunity to gather and celebrate her life. Burial will follow at the historical Southland Cemetery in Grand Prairie.

As we reflect upon JoAnn's life, we remember a woman who exemplified strength, loyalty, and love. Her legacy will forever endure in the hearts of her family and the cherished memories they shared. What a privilege it has been to have been touched by her grace and spirit.

JoAnn was preceded in death by her husband of forty-nine years, dsparents, Benjamin Floyd, Eda Fae Burnett, daughters; Darla LeGalley, Robin Siewert; son-in-law, Mark Siewert and granddaughter, Leann Swearingen.
