

Joe "Pep" Isidro Gonzales

April 26, 1961 - November 25, 2019

Joe "Pep" Isidro Gonzales, 58, a native of Dallas and long-time resident of Grand Prairie, passed away at his home on Monday afternoon, November 25, 2019.

Pep was born on April 26, 1964, one of four sons of Louis Comacho Gonzales and the late Patricia Felan Gonzales. He was raised in Grand Prairie where he began working as a young man.

Before his illness forced him into retirement, Joe worked for twenty-five years as a supervisor in highway safety management. In spare time, Pep enjoyed watching his favorite football team, the Pittsburgh Steelers or cooking in the back yard. When time allowed, he would take a short trip to the Oklahoma Casino, always looking for the Diamond slot machine. He always enjoyed sharing a Miller High Life or margarita with friends. (as long as it had enough liquor in it)

He is survived by his wife of twenty-five years, Melinda Brock Gonzales; children, Thomas Mason, Chanel Rodriguez and spouse Francisco, Tina Johnson and spouse Russell; 8 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; father, Louis Gonzales; brothers, Louis Gonzales Jr, Rick Gonzales and Mike Gonzales.
