“ Dad, your birthday came and went. Me n Lyli did her quince on your day as a memorable moment for you! It was perfect and you know she did a dance with you and I know your presence was there, I felt you and it took every inch of me not to break down! I hope you liked your set up. I wish things were different and you could of actually have been here, even tho I know you no longer like parties lol I always took you a plate home....anyways...man I miss you, so do the girls. I'll see you someday, and I'll never let you go. Brysons birthday coming up...my Aubris twin. Well before I get in my feelings which I try hard to control when it comes to you both. Anyways we on our way to the mall, you know what. I'll see you in my dreams N* lol you better come through! My minds always open. Love you and sorry on the late message. Hope somehow someway you see this and hear my thoughts while I read this.

“ 10years, sorry I did t come on here yesterday. I was trying to keep it together. Feels like yesterday! Well me and the girls did our thing for you. Lucky Aubri was lightning the mood. It still hurts like it just happened. I can't believe I've been with out you this long. It's not ok, but I know your presence is with me like when that ballon kept hitting me in the face haha why could I just see your face laughing at me. I miss you dad. I can't say anything else but I miss you. My pain for you is unbearable at times I don't know what to do. Until we see each other again, I'll hold you and not let you go. Here's to your 10years with the big man! I love you and you live, with me, through me, forever! Love unconditionally -Mona

“Dad, I miss you so much. You always knew how to balance being my dad and my friend, and that’s something I’ll always carry with me. I wish more than anything you’d had the chance to meet the twins, Jesse, and the kids and to see Leon all grown up. You’d be so proud.

I think about those fishing trips all the time — how peaceful they were, and how you’d always talk about wanting to move closer to the beach, or even right on the beach. You dreamed of opening your own restaurant, and God knows you had the talent for it you were an incredible cook.

Funny how life works, because I’m sure you already know... we ended up living in Houston for a while, not too far from the beach. I remember telling myself I’d never move back to Dallas, mostly because I felt like in some way, I was living out your dreams and that made me feel close to you, like I was making you proud.

Then I met Jesse such an amazing guy and somehow, it felt like I was still living a piece of your dream, through his. You’re always here, in some way or another. I’d give anything just to have you here for a moment to hug you and feel you kiss me on the head like you always did. You had this way of making me feel safe, even when life didn’t make sense.

No matter what people said or did, you stayed cool. You were kind, genuine, and always ready to help anyone you could. I love you so much, Dad. And I miss you more than words can ever say.
