“ Don Jose to me was a very Respectful, Hardworking man who loved his family and would listens to what one had to say. I enjoyed our conversations we would have at the grocery store pertaining to my NY Yankees. I'm gonna miss this young man. May you rest in piece my friend and I send out my condolences to the Family during these hard times. Could y'all please post more pics of Don Jose thru the years. Thank you

“ Our deepest condolences to the Valdez family from the Tejeda family and all of the past and present employees of La Tapatia Bakery. We met Joe 45 years ago when he first came into the bakery to buy bread. For years he was one of our favorite weekly customers. Always coming to buy pastries for his kids and later for his grandkids. He was always a funny, kind hearted and respectful man. He always asked for our parents if he didn't see them and well as every member of our immediate family. He always made us laugh with his failed attempt at matchmaking. He was always trying to find a wife for my brother, always coming up with the most unusual suggestions...all as a joke of course! He was a class act! We will miss him dearly.
Thank you Joe, for the honor and the pleasure of considering us your friends! We will keep trying to find Chava a wife in your honor!
We are going to miss you!

May God give the Valdez family peace and strength.
