

Josephine Beatrice Bailey

June 1, 1917 - November 13, 2008

Josephine Beatrice Phillips Bailey, 91, a former resident of Greenville, South Carolina, died Thursday, November 13, 2008 in Arlington, Texas. Josephine Bailey was born June 1, 1917, one of three children born to the late James Gustavus Phillips and the late Rhoda Lucinda Moody Phillips. Mrs Bailey was a long time accountant with Burlington Industries until her retirement in 1982. She was very active in the Zanta Club and Earle Street Baptist Church. She enjoyed very good health until October of 2006 when she had colon cancer surgery. She moved to Texas to live with her nephew and his family on March 1, 2008. She had become a lively part of her extended family until a recent return of her cancer and complications with congestive heart failure. She quietly passed away at Arlington Memorial Hospital on November 13, 2008. Survivors: nephew, Reginald (Reg) J Phillips II and his wife Dorothy (Dot) of Grand Prairie, Texas; niece, Deborah Rockholt and her husband Don of Cocoa Beach, Florida; great-nieces and nephews, Paige Reid, Rene' Cardy, Rochelle O'Polka and Reginald (Rex) J. Phillips III. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lonnie M. Bailey, brother, Reginald (Rex) J. Phillips and a sister, Violet Myrtle McNamee. Funeral: 12:30 p.m. Saturday, November 15, 2008 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Graveside service: 2:00 p.m. Monday, November 17, 2008 at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Greenville, South Carolina under the direction of Thomas McAfee Funeral Home.
