I am sure that he is in Heaven watching over the ones that He loves so much. I believe that when we look up at night into the sky, that his light is shining as bright as his love for his family and the officers he worked with. He will be their "Shining Light" until they are called home,

“ Juan I loved you so much and still do !!!!! Me and you had such a special BOND as TWINS no one on Earth could ever imagine . When we were little you always took up for me as well as when I got older . You always was my hero in school. You were the one that encouraged me to make good grades . When I got married in 1976 you was there always by our side Durning our very hard time starting out as newly Weds n later as new parents. When we had childern you loved them n spoil them beyond measure . One of my sons is name after you cause you are the BEST uncle juan!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Thank you for supporting our ministry when you did as well as travel with us . We enjoyed that so much !!!!! It pains me so much to have to let you go but I must say goodbye as my heart is being torn out of my chest I must say by ! I LOVE YOU FOREVER!!!!!!!!!! TWINS FOREVER!!!!!!
