“ At a time like this it seems like all I can say is We are so sorry for your loss. We (the Hale's) next door have always loved you all and enjoyed watching the children grow up and go on to have their own families. So many memories of Juan and Manny going to play baseball. He was such an involved daddy and that always made us so happy. We love you all and will always be here for you if the LORD says the same. GOD BLESS you all now in your sorrow and always.

I must mention that I am sure the girls were Daddy's girls because I know I was with my daddy. Of course the oldest, Juan Jr. Takes the lead and has his daddy all to himself for a time. Always remember these things about your wonderful daddy.
