“ We send our condolences to the family of Tia Juanita. My husband Felix got to pick her up at the airport in San Antonio when she came to visit her sisters in Crystal City. She had a great sense of humor and we enjoyed her company, Although we didn't keep in touch we always remembered "Tia Juanita.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. I didn't see much of Tia Juanita, but the times I saw her are sweet memories I will treasure. I remember her thoughtfulness and kindness when she came to visit me after my daughter Rebekah died.
