

Juanita Marlene Mackey

August 24, 1938 - November 3, 2016

J. Marlene Mackey, 78, retired church secretary and faithful servant of God, entered into eternal rest on Thursday, November 3, 2016 at a local care center.

Memorial Service: 10 a.m. Monday, November 7, 2016 at Open Door, Baptist Church, 2545 W. Warrior, Grand Prairie, TX, 75052.

Juanita Marlene Mackey, 78, a native of Bosque County and the only child of the late Chester Bullard and the late Alta Mae Talley, was born on August 24, 1938. She would be raised in Johnson County, and would marry the late Charles Boyce Mackey at the age of 14.

He would be hired at General Motors and would move to Arlington. They would begin their family, and would eventually settle in Grand Prairie where they would make their permanent home. Marlene would find her calling in serving through her church. She would serve at Trinity Baptist Church for more than 40 years as church secretary.

Marlene was a devoted mother and devote Christian. She loved reading her bible, spending countless hours studying. She had a loving and nurturing spirit, and was gifted in encouraging others. Her greatest joy was having the opportunity to attend church at Open Door Baptist Church where she had been a member since 2003.

Survivors: children, Terry Mackey and his spouse Lucy, Susan Mackey Mitchell and her spouse Don, Cam McKay and his spouse Gail; 10 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.
