

Juanita Ruiz

June 24, 1950 - December 23, 2022

Juanita Ruiz, 72, of Arlington passed away December 23, 2022.

Visitation: 5 to 8:00 p.m. Friday, January 6, 2023 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E Main St, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050.

Juanita was born in Robstown, TX on June 24, 1950, the daughter of the late Elisa Ruiz and Domingo Gonzales.

Ms. Ruiz adored her family and was known as "the glue that held the family together". Her door was always open to anyone and everyone and it gave her much pleasure to be able to help anyone in need. She would literally give someone her last dollar just to help. She had a passion for playing BINGO and was well known at her local BINGO hall. When her health began to decline she lost her voice and expressed to her fellow BINGO players that she may not be able to come anymore because her voice cannot be heard. They then surprised her with a bell that she could ring if she hit BINGO and warmly told her "Your voice will always be heard here". This is the type of impact Juanita left on everyone around her. Making an impact on people around her and helping those she was able made her heart truly happy.

Juanita is survived by her sons Paul and Domingo Gonzales, along with his wife Veronica, sisters Irma, Adelita, Dominga, and her brother Margo, grandchildren Jordan, Ryan, Sonya, Zack, Ashley, Kevin, Kaili, Caleb, Cailen, Lauren, Caidin, Alexander and four great grandchildren Joshua, Julian, Xavier, Lorenzo and Camila.

She is preceded in death by her parents Domingo and Elisa Gonzales and by numerous brothers and sisters.
