

Juan Martinez

July 12, 1957 - January 10, 2011

Juan Martinez, 53, handyman, brother, uncle and friend, died Monday, January 10, 2011 unexpectedly at a Dallas hospital. Juan was born on July 12, 1957 in Lubbock, Texas to the late Tomas Martinez Jr. and late Maria De Refugio Rodriguez. Juan was born into a family of 8 girls, finally, becoming the first male child. The family would eventually have a total of twelve children including 4 boys. After his birth, his family would move to Grapevine where he was raised. At the age of 12, he started his first job, working at a car wash. His love of the outdoors would eventually lead him to his permanent residence in Quinlan, Texas, where he would reside until the time of his death. His love for animals, nature and classic rock would cause his family to lovingly refer to him as "the Mexican Hippie". He was skilled at repairing, and was the family handyman. He is survived by his siblings; Guadalupe Salinas, Maria Martinez, Manuela Razo, Andrella Martinez, Erimina Leal, Gloria Martinez, Teresa Martinez, Martin Martinez, Abran Martinez; 16 nieces and 15 nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Juanita Rendon, a brother, Madaleno Martinez and a nephew, Francisco Razo, Jr. Visitation: 12 until 9 p.m. Thursday. Rosary: 7 p.m. Graveside service will be 2 p.m. Friday, January 14, 2011 at Southland Memorial Park.

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 13 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570