

Judith Marcia Speak

December 3, 2008

Judith Marcia Graves Speak, 66, a homemaker, died Wednesday, December 3, 2008 suddenly and unexpectedly at her home in Grand Prairie. Mrs. Speak was born July 14, 1942, the second of three daughters born to the late Horace Graves and the late Emma Stacey Graves in Burlington County, New Jersey. She attended school at Holy Trinity in Trenton. After her graduation she would briefly attend nursing school. She would marry Curtis Speak of the US Navy, and together, they would make a life in military service. Their careers would take them all over the world, including Norfolk, VA., Mississippi, Barbados, the West Indies, Georgia and finally The Dallas Naval Air Station where they would retire in 1980. Judith was a loving mother and grandmother. Her caring and loving ways have always been a great source of comfort for her family. She is survived by her husband of 47 years, Curt Speak; son, Curtis Speak; daughter, Stacey Speak and her spouse Duane Davis; grandchildren, Matthew McIlveene, Elizabeth Palmer and her husband Roberto Amala; sisters, Barbara Tunney and Joan Miller. Rosary: 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 8, 2008. Funeral service will be 1 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 9, 2008 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will follow at the DFW National Cemetery.
