

June Lilian Wraley

November 10, 1926 - December 15, 2012

June Lilian Wraley, 86, a native of Middlesex England and long time resident of Grand Prairie, died on Saturday, December 15, 2012, at her home in Grand Prairie. June Lilian Wright Wraley, was born November 10, 1926. During World War II, she would meet an American, the late Carl Wraley, a member of the US Army Air Corp., to whom she would marry. After the conclusion of the war, Carl would bring her to the United States where she would make her permanent home. She would live in Indiana and California before coming to Grand Prairie in 1956. Originally, the Wraley family would move to the second floor of a furniture company on the east end of Main Street. June would work at various places, including The NCR Cash Register Co. and Texas Instruments. In 1985, June and Carl would move to Panama City, Florida, where they loved being near the water and fishing. June would become widowed in 1987 at the death of her beloved Carl. She would stay in Florida, where she had developed a real passion for her new endeavor. Working for CCA Inc., she would become a supervisor for cooks working at Bay County Jail. She had a true love for her job and for her fellow employees. Failing health would necessitate her moving back to Grand Prairie, where she could be closer to her family. Although she was aging, she still remained healthy and alert. Her family will be forever grateful for their bonding and relationships during the last years of her life. She leaves behind two children; Gary Wraley and his wife Linda and Judy Steimel; 8 loving grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Also her sisters, Joan Wright and Sandra Saunders. In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by a son-in-law, Sam Steimel. Visitation: 10:30 to 12 noon on Thursday, Dec. 20, 2012 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, followed by a funeral service at 12. Burial will follow at the Dallas Ft. Worth National Cemetery, Dallas, Texas.
