“ Your presence lit up our lives with happiness, and even though you're gone, your memory will remain in our hearts. I'll always treasure the moments we spent making tamales together and the joy it brought you. The birthday and Mother's Day and Christmas gifts were sincere expressions of love that touched my heart. We'll miss your kindness and love, but I'm thankful for the time we had together. As your stepmom, I promise to hold onto the memories we made.

“ My uncle meant the world to me. He had this way of making everyone laugh, no matter the situation, and his smile could light up an entire room. Some of my favorite memories are of us sitting on the beach together, drinks in hand, just enjoying the waves, the sun, and each other's company. He had a gift for turning simple moments into the best times, and being around him always felt like pure joy. Even though he's gone, the laughter we shared and the memories we made will stay with me forever.
