

Justin Nicholas Ladetto

February 8, 1987 - June 8, 2015

Justin Nicholas Ladetto, 28, of Midlothian TX passed away on Monday, June 8, 2015 at Mansfield Methodist Medical Center in Mansfield, Texas after spending several days in the ICU.

A memorial service will be held at 2pm on Saturday, June 13, 2015 at Duncanville's First Baptist Church, located at 323 West Wheatland Road, Duncanville, TX 75116.

Justin was born on February 8, 1987 to Lynne Kellner and Dom Ladetto. He grew up in Haverhill, MA and moved to Texas in 2009.

Justin was a member of Duncanville's First Baptist Church and he loved to praise and serve his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was an employee of the church and spent his days in God's house as a maintenance man. He enjoyed and had a special knack for fixing things. If he was unsure of how to fix something he would look at a "how to" video online and then fix it.

Justin volunteered as a construction leader for "Bounce," a disaster and relief ministry. He also was an assistant coach for a youth basketball team in the Upwards Basketball ministry.

Justin loved living in Texas and wore cowboy boots and blue jean overalls. He drove a beloved pickup truck and enjoyed spending time at the shooting range.

He loved to listen to Classic Rock and Contemporary Christian music. He enjoyed watching documentaries on Netflix with his wife Kristen. He loved "Bathroom Reader" books and loved sharing random facts that he learned from reading them. He was a fan of Boston sports, especially the Boston Bruins hockey team. He adored his nieces Jordyn, 6, and Huntyn, 4, and spent many hours caring for them and playing and reading to them. The girls so loved their Uncle Justin. Justin also loved his cat Molly very much.

On his drivers license, Justin had registered himself to be an organ donor. His doctor told us that at least 7 people would be helped by his donated organs, and we know that 3 patients were helped within hours of his passing.

Justin is survived by his wife, Kristen (Houk) Ladetto, of Midlothian, his mother and stepfather, Lynne and Russell Miller of Arlington, TX, his father, Dom Ladetto of Belmont, MA, his brothers David Ladetto and Nicholas Pushee, his sister Adrianna Ladetto and stepbrother Andrew Miller. Also he is survived by his grandparents, Dotty and Eddie Glynn, Wayne and Ann Kellner, and Michael and Ellen Null-Miller. He is also survived by uncles, aunts, cousins and nieces. He was preceded in death by his grandmother Marlene Kellner and his Uncle Steven Kellner.

For those wishing to make donations in Justin Ladetto's memory, the family has designated two funds: Duncanville's First Baptist Church, and in remarks note "steeple lighting repair fund." or LifeGift, a non-profit organ & tissue donation group, at <http://www.lifegift.org/make-contribution>

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy Glynn sent a virtual gift in memory of Justin Nicholas Ladetto

Dorothy Glynn - June 12, 2015 at 03:46 PM

“ Donald Cary lit a candle in memory of Justin Nicholas Ladetto

Donald Cary - June 11, 2015 at 07:53 PM

I knew Justin as my neighbor initially but we became friends. We helped each other when needed and had good times as well. I'm gonna miss him.

Donald Cary - June 11, 2015 at 07:54 PM

“ Katy Best lit a candle in memory of Justin Nicholas Ladetto

Katy Best - June 11, 2015 at 04:11 PM

“ I met Justin in high school. The way we met was I was walking down the hallway and he was coming towards me. Keep in mind I was a crazy wacko 15 year old girl. I saw Justin and kissed him haha. That is how we became really good friends. It was me Matt and Justin against high school <3 I will miss you Justin and I will never forget you. <3

---

Liz Bills - June 11, 2015 at 01:46 PM

“ Arrive in Style was purchased for the family of Justin Nicholas Ladetto.

---

June 11, 2015 at 09:12 AM

“ Paula Keoughan lit a candle in memory of Justin Nicholas Ladetto

---

paula keoughan - June 11, 2015 at 08:57 AM

AT

“ *~*~I know your family will never be able to forget you. Those we love never truly leave us. I never got a chance to meet you, Justin, your brother Dave and I have known each other for what feels like forever. I am sure if you were anything like your brother with the amusement he gives me in my life, that you were quite the amazing man in your own life. We all get the same 525,600 a year on this Earth and if the posts by your family and friends are anything to go by, you were super loved every minute and will be extremely missed. *~*~*~

---

Ashley T. - June 10, 2015 at 10:19 PM