

Kamran Antoine Glover

August 9, 1974 - August 3, 2014

Kamran Antoine Glover went to be with the Lord on August 3, 2014.

Kamran was born on October 26, 1974 in Dallas, Texas, to Evelyn Glover.

Kamran graduated from Dallas' Business Magnet high School where he studied business management. Following high school, he attended Mountain View College and later worked as a dispatcher for the City of Dallas (311)

In addition to wrestling, Kamran loved video games, music, movies, and was also very good at technology.

More than anything, he loved spending time with his wife, family and fiends.

His happy and affectionate demeanor never changed from childhood to adulthood. He often greeted friends and family with huge bear hugs and warm kisses on the cheek. he was also hilarious. his sisters often called him "Spotlight" because of his bright and bubbly personality and because he loved to entertain everyone in the room.. It was rare to see him without a smile on his face; this smile was ever so apparent when he met and then later married the love of his life.

He is lovingly remembered by his family: wife, Misty Glover; mother, Evelyn

Glover Williams (John); brother, Curtis Amison III; sisters, Tomeka Womack, Kalena and Kiera Amison; aunts, Linda Birdine (Homer); uncles who were surrogate fathers, Alfred Glover, Clayton Glover (Sherry) Michael Glover, Troy Glover and David Glover (Sundra); grandmothers, Nettie Glover and Helen Amison; grandparents-in-law, Harold and Jeanie Jennings; parents-in-law, Julie Curtis and Paul Gibson, and Keith and Jeannie Hurst; along with a host of extended family and friends.

Kamran was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Bill Glover Jr. and Curtis Amison Sr; and uncle, Terry Glover.
