

Katheryne Williams Taylor

July 5, 1923 - December 12, 2010

Katheryne Williams Taylor, 87, a native of Grand Prairie, resident of Dallas, homemaker and advocate for the less fortunate, died Sunday, December 12, 2010 at a hospital in Dallas, Texas. Katheryne was born July 5, 1923 in Grand Prairie, the oldest of 5 children born to the late George Henry Williams and the late Nobie O'Neal Williams. She would marry at a young age, 14, to the late Cleburne Taylor. Together, they would become life long residents and raise their family in the Dallas area. Katheryne was always an advocate for the less fortunate and anyone "in need". Her greatest joy was always in helping others. She was a great "soul winner" and had been a member of Faith Temple Assembly of God for more than 45 years. In addition to her parents and husband, she was also preceded in death by a son, Bobby Wayne Taylor. Survivors included a son, Errol Taylor; daughter, Wilma Polley and her husband Robert; grandchildren, Debra Brown and her husband Charles, Sabrina Nickens and her husband Kevin, Robert Polley Jr and his wife Tammi, Lisa Polley, Bryan Taylor and his wife Jennifer; 9 great-grandchildren; 6 great-great grandchildren; sister, Imogene Pope; brother, George "Sandy" Williams, many nieces and nephews. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday. Funeral: 10 a.m. Wednesday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050. Burial will follow beside her husband at Southland Memorial Park. If friends desire, the family request donations to the American Cancer Society or a favorite charity of choice.
