

Kathleen Lynn Ray

January 30, 1959 - October 18, 2013

Kathleen Lynn Clingenpeel Ray, 54, a native of Duluth, MN and resident of Alvarado, died on Friday, Oct. 18, 2013 at a local hospital.

Kathleen was born on January 30, 1959, the daughter of the late Bennie Lee Clingenpeel and Joan E. Clingenpeel. As the daughter of a veteran of the US Air Force, she would live at various bases, including California, New Jersey, England and Reno, Nevada.

After her high school education, she would attend technical school to learn diesel engine repair. In 1984, she would move to Alvarado where she and her husband would own and operate Ray's Diesel Injection. Always a hard worker, she would be employed by Titan, building bombs and also by Walmart.

Kathleen was an avid gardener, and would always raise a beautiful garden. She had a strong love for her family, and they always had priority in her life.

She is survived by her husband of 31 years, David Lee Ray; children, David Ray and his wife Heather, Brandi Ray, Deanna Dunkel, Danielle Ray and her husband Jon Whitlock, Steven Ray and his wife Rosario; 15 grandchildren; mother, Joan Clingenpeel Ray; brother, Micky Clingenpeel and his wife Jennifer.

Visitation: 11 to 12 p.m. Monday at First United Pentecostal Church of Grand Prairie where funeral services will follow at 12, Rev. Keith Duvall officiating.
