

Kathy Louise Fowler

January 25, 1959 - August 12, 2007

Fowler, Kathy L., 48, loving wife, mother, daughter and friend died Sunday, August 12, 2007 at her home in Grand Prairie. Kathy was a native of Leon, KS, the daughter of Robert William Meeks and Rhoda Norris Meeks, She attended schools in Leon, graduating from Bluestem High School in 1977. She later would attend classes at Richland Community College in Dallas. Kathy was a coordinator for Darrell Flood Allied Van Lines. When free time allowed, she loved to spend time shopping, cooking, or traveling with her husband. She enjoyed visiting the area drag strips, watching the races or attending a concert. Generous by nature, Kathy would recruit teams to participate in fund raising activities for both the Susan G. Komen Foundation and the American Heart Association, even before the knowledge of her illness. She was a "green thumb" gardener and an avid reader. One of her favorite ways to relax was to read a book to her grandchildren. She is survived by her husband, Robert Fowler; son, Thomas "T.J." Tatman and his fiancée, Katherine Harrison; daughter, Tammy Jo Harrison and her husband Greg; grandchildren, Rusty, Bobby, Lane and Kimberly; mother, Rhoda Meeks; brother, James "Jim" Meeks and his wife Ginger; adopted son, Charles Dodson (USAF) and his wife Nicky and their family; life-long friend, Robin Frank; god-daughters, Leslie and Leah Frank. She was preceded in death by her father, Robert William Meeks and mother-in-law, Roxy Ruth Merchant. She will be greatly missed by her two sweet little dogs, Savannah and Grace. Friends may visit from 12 until 8 up.m. Tuesday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main St. Grand Prairie, where funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday, August 15, 2007. Burial will follow at Chattanooga National Cemetery on Friday, August 17, 2007 under the direction of Wilson Funeral Home of Chickamauga, Georgia. The family kindly request memorials be directed to the Susan G. Kohmen Foundation, 5005 LBJ Freeway, Suite 250, Dallas, Texas, 75244.
