

Kenneth "Ken" Ray Amos

November 19, 1955 - October 29, 2012

Kenneth "Ken" Ray Amos, 56, of Little Elm, died on October 29, 2012, 20 days before his 57th birthday. Ken was born on November 19, 1955 in Grayson County, Texas, the only child born to the late Justin Ray Amos and the late Margaret Marie Baker. After graduation, Ken joined the U.S. Army. After an honorable discharge, he would live in Irving for many years, working for the City of Dallas in the water department. Ken loved motorcycles and 18 wheelers. He was working with his good friend, Cruz Martinez, making instate truck runs. He made many friends along the routes, always anxious to visit and tell a few jokes. Andrea, his daughter recalls, my dad was a unique character, definitely the type of person you'd miss when he's not there. He liked to write, draw, do great impressions, and his favorite activity was tinkering in a big garage. He had a 55' Chevy that he kept on the road all of my childhood. Primer on the outside, perfect interior, always cleaned the windows at the gas station. There's just so much more... We went to the auto show every year, and drag races, built model cars and Barbie's dream house. He did all the little things that meant everything. He is survived by his children, Andrea Jordan and Eric Amos; step-mother, Candy Arnett; faithful friends, the Cruz Martinez family. Graveside service with military honors: 10 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 21, 2012 at DFW National Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Dad was a guy who never met a stranger. The look on that puppy's face really says it all. ”

A. Amos - October 30, 2013 at 10:17 PM