“ Aunt Faye was a loving and kind woman who protected all those she loved. Even with a lifetime of adversity, her faith in God and kind heart never wavered. I remember her laughter as I or my son did something goofy. I remember her tears as she prayed for a loved one. One memory very close to my heart is watching Aunt Faye holding mom's hand in the hospital only a few days after mom had a stroke and couldn't talk.

Thank you, Aunt Faye, for being a huge part of my childhood. You helped to make me the strong person I am today. You will be truly missed. We love you.
