

Lawrence "Lencho" Guerra Jr.

September 13, 1980 - June 14, 2020

Lawrence "Lencho" Guerra Jr., 39, died in Dallas, Texas on June 14, 2020. The taking of his life has left his family with a deep sense of loss. He will be forever remembered.

Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, June 26, 2020 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where a Prayer Service will be conducted at 6. Funeral: 11 a.m. Saturday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home Chapel.

Lencho Guerra was born on September 13, 1980 in Dallas, Texas, the son of Lawrence Guerra Sr and Laura Salazar. He was the 2nd of 6 siblings.

Lencho was a Rolling Stone with a gypsy soul, standing at 5'6" but with the heart of a giant. He was a protector of the weak and a giver to those who were in need. He was a hero, romantic, caring, kind, and thoughtful. When told he wasn't the sharpest tool in the shed, he would reply, "no, but I'm the shiniest"! He would give you the shirt off of his back. It may not have sleeves, but whatever he had, he would share.

He loved his mother, siblings, nieces and nephews, his kids and he was loved by everyone. He had a smile that would light up a room and now it's lighting up Heaven.

We are sure he is looking down at us from above with that big smile of his. He wouldn't want us to mourn over him but to live life and have fun, love with all your heart, don't stay mad for too long, learn to forgive because we don't know what tomorrow is going to bring.

Survivors include his children, Lawrence Alexander Guerra, Jacob Isaiah Guerra, Marcus Anthony Perez; father, Lawrence Guerra Sr.; mother, Laura Guerra; siblings, Juan Valdez, Monica Guerra, Leroy Guerra and his spouse Elizabeth Guerra-Gasca, Rogelio Esquivel and Adrianna Acosta.

“ I remember going to Kennedy middle School with him and Monica. He was the class clown, the Joker the one that made everyone laugh. I sure will miss him. Mays God's perpetual light shine upon him.
