

Lillian Ann Masters

August 2, 1953 - October 24, 2009

Lillian Ann Beasley Masters, 56, a native of Holly Grove, Arkansas and resident of Killeen, Texas, died on Saturday, October 24, 2009 in Temple, Texas after a brief illness. Lillian was born on August 2, 1953, the eighth of nine children born to the late Alfred Beasley Sr. and Kattie Hunt Beasley. Lillian would attend school in Brinkley, working hard at a young age, picking cotton until she could save enough money to move to Detroit, Michigan. While in Detroit, she was an employee of Chrysler, working as a quality control inspector. She would begin her family in Detroit, where she would reside with her 3 children until 1995 when she moved to Central Texas to care for an ailing sister. After moving to Killeen, she would meet Robert, "Bob" Masters and would soon become his wife. Together, they would make their home in Killeen where they were faithful members of The Tabernacle of Praise. Lillian was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She was faithful to her God, family and friends. Her departure has left a great void in all of our lives. She will be deeply missed. Survivors: husband of 9 years, Robert "Bob" Masters; sons, Richard Butler and his wife Brooke, Daniel Beasley and his wife Crystal; daughter, Jovanna Beasley; grandchildren, ChiKirah, Danzel and Jazlin; brother, Edwin "Puddin" Beasley; sisters, Estella Flowers and Betty Carter. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by sisters, Elizabeth Beasley, Lois Beasley, Mary Lee Beasley and Barbara Anderson. Funeral: 11 a.m. Thursday, October 29, 2009 at Tabernacle of Praise, 5010 Trimmier Road, Killeen, Texas, 76542. Burial: Central Texas

State Veterans Cemetery. Visitation: 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the church. Pallbearers: Marvin Saunders, Floyd Griffith, Shedrick Hill, Eddie Smith, Tim Masters and Richard Butler.
