

Lillian O. Wilson

September 17, 1929 - January 3, 2004

Lillian O. Wilson, wife of Dr. Bob Wilson, died peacefully on January 3, 2004. Lillian was born in Long Island, New York on September 17, 1929. She was educated in Boston, Massachusetts. Most of her adult life she lived in Atlanta, Georgia, where she was employed by the Federal Reserve Bank. Two of her fondest memories were heading The Walton County Humane Society in Georgia and serving on the Board of Directors of Orphans of the World in Grand Prairie. After moving to Texas in the mid 70's, Lillian worked with her husband until retirement. Her love and care of animals was outstanding. Survivors include her husband, Robert Wilson, D.V.M., son, David Norton and his wife Patricia of Norcross, Georgia, Kyle and Janice Wilson of Burleson, Texas, daughter Kayrn Hahne and husband Clifford of Colleyville, Texas and six grandchildren. In lieu of flowers please send donations to Orphans of the World, 422 North Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050.
