“ My condolences to the family, I didn't know Mrs Dilling but I know her son Tim. He is a good friend and I am sure that is a reflection of her. I had no idea his mother had been in the Navy. I did seven years in the Navy. I am sure the family is proud of her for serving her country and helping sick sailors in there time of need. Fair winds and following seas Lt we have the watch.

“ *Deepest sympathy to Gerald and the whole family.
Linda was the sweetest person and made every person she met feel important. Linda dated my brother, Don Parker, and our whole family adored her.
