

Lonnie Delbert Green

April 13, 1936 - October 28, 2009

Lonnie Delbert Green was born April 13, 1936 in Durant, Oklahoma to Alvin & Jesse Green. Mr. Green proudly served his country for 30 years, enlisting in the US Navy June 7, 1954 and retired as Master Chief on July 1, 1984. He was an avid reader, sometimes reading at least 4 books a week. He loved sports, especially football and was a huge fan of the Washington Redskins. He was also a gourmet cook and loved to entertain. Mr. Green also wanted it to be remembered that two things that he took most pride of in his life was his Choctaw Indian heritage and his 30 years of service to his country. Survivors: wife of 36 years, Lovada "Sam" Green, children; Sher Howell, Roger Green, Earl Pitt, Paula Fincher & her husband, Tommy, grandchildren; Kit Howell, Exie Howell, Callie Howell, Ryan Green & Jessica Fincher, brother; Bob Green & his wife, Roburttta, numerous nieces, nephews & cousins. Funeral: 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, November 3, 2009 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Burial: DFW National Cemetery with full military honors. Visitation: 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Monday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home.
