“ I have fond memories of my niece Lorie as a child and a young woman. Lorie enjoyed growing up with other cousins near her age, including my children. We spent a lot of time together and I got to do a lot with her. Holidays, especially Christmas and Easter were always special and celebrated with family. There was always Birthday parties going on; that was a ‘big event’ and a lot of fun. Lorie spent a lot of time with her Grandmother Staples and they had a good relationship. In fact, we used to say Lorie was Grandmother Staples favorite. Although I have not been with Lorie much in her adult life, I will always remember and cherish my memories of sharing my life with her.

I am not able to be there but my prayers and thoughts are with each of you. May God give you comfort and love at this time and grant you peace,

With love, Aunt Judy (Lorie’s Mother sister)
